Househeld Affairs.—Remv in Domestic Economy.—Spirits of turpentine will dissolve greats spois on woolen clothes, and soft paulous spiled affairs.—The whiteness of front woolen clothes. The whiteness of front woolen clothes. The whiteness of the woolen clothes and soft paulous them with fine sand once or money. The diffuser targets are shaker, the longer they will last. Dry wood by experiment, is found to give twice has mouth fiest as wet wood.

Making 'falled' clothe.—The chain should be twisted so vernly as possible, and all made of one kind of wool. The filling should be twisted even also, but not one as the chain. Pulled wool should note as the chain. Pulled wool should note as the chain. Pulled wool in making cloth. The flanned should be lead wide, at least a yard; the water the better. If you desire to put pulled wool into the same piece of cloth, fill it in at one yard, so that it can be cut off. The cloth should not be dyed before it is fulled; it will not make as good work. A.
