

MORE REPORTED GREAT FIRES.—A postscript to the Providence Chronicle, of the 5th inst., says:

"We learn, just as we are going to press, that there has been a most destructive fire at Plymouth. No particulars have been furnished us. Should we observe anything it will be given in a second edition.

"Since writing the above, we have seen a gentleman direct from Des Moines, He tells us that there was a report in that place that the fire in Marshpee woods [to which we alluded yesterday, and the strong light which was seen here day before yesterday evening and yesterday morning] had extended to Wareham and Plymouth—that about forty houses in the first had been destroyed, and one half of the latter."

To the Editor of the Neighbor.
Mr. Editor, Knowing your paper was open to the truth on all subjects, I thought that it might not be uninteresting to your readers abroad to know something of the doings in "the beloved city." I therefore send

On Saturday last Mr. Joseph P. Hoge, democratic candidate for Congress, addressed the citizens of this place according to

He took a brief review of the political history of the country—showed the ruin and devastation that had been inflicted upon the people by the Banks of the country. He then adverted to the Tarif, and gave his views in opposition to it, showing the evils and iniquity of the system. He showed the absurdity of distributing the land fund among the States, when we had a bankrupt treasury; that it was held out as a bribe to the indebted States. But said he, I trust that the people are not like cattle in the market, to be bought and sold by a few designing politicians. His remarks upon the promises and performances of the whig party was truly withering and sarcastic.

He boldly proclaimed his principles, that no man could be in doubt as to what they were. He evinced a no-ness of soul and independence of spirit, that characterize him as a patriot and philanthropist. In him are combined all the qualities that render him well worthy our support.

quent and unanswerable address, a letter was handed him containing some queries, which related to the people of Nauvoo. He answered them freely, frankly and boldly, to the satisfaction of every unprejudiced

Mr. Walker then made a few remarks, and endeavored to cast the impress on that he had sought Mr. Hope, to speak with him through the district, but he had avoided him. This was a matter in which the people had nothing to do. But is there a sane man that ever heard the two speak, really believe that Hoge has any thing to lose by appearing with him?

On Tuesday evening Mr. Walker, continued the discourse in answer to Mr. Hoge. He prefaced his address with a piteous cry of what he should use by his defence of Joseph Smith, and what Mr. Hoge, would gain, therefore he thought the people of Nauvoo ought to support him. But he forgot to explain why he voted for Jo. Duncan for Governor, an open hostile enemy of the Mormons. He was as silent as the tomb of the silent dead upon this subject. He advocated all the federal whig measures, and said he was a democratic whig! Why a democratic whig in the east would be worth a quarter a night. To cap the climax of all, he claimed to be a Jackson democrat !!! He certainly presumed more upon the ignorance and credulity of the people than any man I ever saw or else he must be ignorant

He continued his address until sunset, when Mr. Hoge arose and replied in a strain of eloquence, for about two hours, that completely demolished the whole superstructure erected by

Mr. Walker. Though the night was cool, candles were lighted, and the people patiently listened to Mr. Hoge until about nine o'clock. He was frequently stopped with the shouts of applause. He has won for himself golden opinions. All who heard Mr. H. accord to him the merit of an eloquent speaker, and a giant intellect, and that he is an honest, honorable and high minded man. With him as our representative, we may feel proud. We know that our rights will be protected. Judge ye between the two, and on Monday next you will record

STRAYED FROM THE TEMPLE.
ABOUT two months ago a dark brown Cow, white face, carries her head high, lop horned, bright eyes, a white spot on one hind foot, white on the end of the tail, white bag, rather short legs, nine years old last spring, she was expected to calve in a few days when she went away, she is not a very large Cow but pretty smart. Enloe

ALSO, a black Cow, white face, white feet, lower part of tail white, had a dirty red and white band on her horns. across her forehead, she was very poor when she went away, gave a little milk, had no calf, rather a small sized Cow, and about seven years old as near as can be remembered.

Whoever will give information of either or both of the Cows to the Temple Committee or the Temple Recorder, or

The descriptions are as near as can be remembered, but only having them here a little while it may possibly not be exactly correct.

LOOK HERE.
I would say to emigrants, and all the brethren, that I have a few lots on hand that I will sell very cheap, as I am going on my mission soon, and wish to sell before I go.
Also, I have lots with buildings on them. If any one wishes for a good store building near the Temple, I can accommodate them.
