A few more stronge delusions, like Millerism, will make many believe a lie, and be damed—and so the elect will know by these signs that redemption is night; yea, like the fig trees putting forth Laves,—then know ye that Summer is near—But read the extract:—

I often heak know ye that Summer is near—But read the extract:—

I often heak know ye that Summer is near—I often hear this called a singular dealusion; but to mb it seems by no means anguiar. It is the legitimate result of the external theological teaching, which has prevailed, to a great extent, in our churches, ever since the country was colouized by Christians. The people have been fold, for a series of years, that the world would be destryed by material fire, and that the Messah would come visibly in the hear eas, to riggs in as king on the omize of the desired of the desired for world would be destroyed by material fire, and that the Messah would come visibly in the heavens, to reign as a king on the carth. It is but one step more, to decid when these events will occur. The Jews, who, in the first advent of a Mersiath, expected a powerful prince, to conquer the Roma is, and restore the national glory of Judes, were not more grossly external in their application of the prophecies, than are the most of the the-containg compassion of the buildness of the Jews. If men happly as much common sense to their theological investigations as they do to every other, subject, they could not worship a God, who, laving filled this world with millions of his children, would finally consign them all to eiternal destruction, excepts few who could be induced to believe in very difficult, and doubtful explanations of propherics handed down to us through the long lapse of ages. There is, however, a dependence to the content of the conte

DISSERTATION ON HEAT.

BY DR. H. CANNON.

Heat or caloric has from time immenorial, been supposed to have deecended from the sun, and the belief has been so far routed and established, that philosophers and astronomers talk about the heat of the sun, in the swime terms as though it and the sun, in the swime terms as though a sun and the belief and the sun of the sun, in the swime terms as though a sun and the sun of the sun morning, and carries it back to the earth, and we feel it more; parly owing to its increased quantity, and partly to its motion being turned back by the light.

At the medidian it is hotest, because of more direct ray than in the morning and evening. In the night the heat escapes

Mr. Repsher said he thought that the Mr. Repsher said he hought that the fact entitled an act for the more portation of Agriculture and Manufactory and the successive of the seederly, and forther advised that a new charier be obtained embracing every kind of manufactory, as silks &c. Mr. Taylor observed that the charter covered the three contents of the seederly, and for the whole ground.

Mr. Scovil read a copy of a letter should be taken in this matter.

Mr. Taylor thought that the companies who go filto manufactory sought to bear their own burthers, they could if not they should be assisted.

Mr. Repsher shought that a general interest should be taken in this matter.

Mr. Repsher shought that we had acharies sufficient to go into every kind of Manufactory and that when any portion think well to go into any portion think well to go into any portion think well to go into any portion them.

A motion was made and carried that a general the companies who go filto manufactory and that when any pertical think well to go into any pertical them, selves homes wherever we could find them; and that too, under the most sixual variates on the most sixual variates of the Temple in Nauvo. They agreed the most sixual variates of the Temple in Nauvo. They agreed to a Mr. H. Patten, and sarreed to pay him seven hundred and fifty dollars. They paid him five hundred and days work building for him a house. They had also broke go about eighty acres of prairie on their new farm, built a good little trame house, and also a log one, and made one and a half miles of fence. These improvements could not have been made for less than five hundred dollars.

A motion was made and carried that a green matter of the substitution of the substi

Now about the first of August last, one Ephraim S. Green, the instance of Horace Burges, as it is said, went to University and bowett this land from to University had the best built of the or the six side, went to University and bowett this land from to University had the six so we had to the or the six so that the or the or the six side, went to University and howett this land from movement in the instance of Horace Burges, as it is said, went to Quincy and bught this land from under Miner and Durfee of the original proprietor for a comparitively small sum unbeknown to them altogether. Miner and Durfee had obtained the cash to go and make the last payment, but neglected to do it for four or five days: when to their surprise, Green came and, demanded possession, and of his great cleinency offered them 10 decreased land 24 miles distant, consisting of barrier oak ridges which he had previously offered for eighty dollars, having, only a fax title.

and two hundred dollars in money—Durfee and Miner, being peaceable and working men, concluded to necept the defeated working and respectable and working and respectable that the second working and respectable that the first soft their hard labor. He professes to be a Latter Day Sintt but we should advise him to go to Pittsburgh, or to Hampton and mingle with his swin kindred. He is not wanted here, and that is a totall.

Now if the said Green will go and make good the wrong he has done to Durfee and Miner in dollars and cents. Ind pay them for the trouble and vextuon to which he has subjected them by his ungodly avariee, then he may have the fellowship of this people and dwell here in peace if he deals justly with his neighbor: but if he refuse to do this—let those who have unsettled business with him, close it up as soon as possible, and let no one who intends to be a Latter Day Saint commit any business to his charge; and let those who buy of him hereafter inherit the curse that is upon him, as the curse of Nananan the Syrana clave to Gehazi, the servant of [Elisha. See 2m Kings is the chapter 27 verse; And when any one meets him, though it be but a child in the streets, let him say, that is the speculator that has legally robbed honest men.
